Red Carpet in the Rainforest

100-250 people

Guests arrive at Rainforestation in Tropic Wings coaches and are greeted and escorted to the Koala & Wildlife Park for pre-dinner drinks, canapes and wildlife interaction. The towering gum trees are uplit, tropical ferns are lit with coloured lights while wildlife keepers roam with Koalas, Snakes and Lizards.

Then, it's off for night spotlight tours of the rainforest in original WWII Army Ducks. Our entertaining guides will take you through the rainforest pointing out plants and nocturnal animals of interest while spinning some great stories.

Guests alight the Army Ducks at the Outback Restaurant. The tropical gardens (edging three sides) are twinkling with coloured and fairy lights, tables lit with lighting indigenous inspired pieces and the band is playing, setting the perfect ambience. Guests are greeted by waiters with beverages, as they make their way to their tables, dinner is waiting.

Between courses the Pamagirri Dance Troupe takes to the stage for an enthusiastic cultural dance performance. After, kick up your heels on the dance floor as the band kicks into high gear and takes the party to a new level.

Aussie Bush Night

This event is fun, social, casual and has the atmosphere of a carnival or festival. The whole park is lit up with festoon lights, and spotlights up into the trees. Music from multiple locations wafts through the air while roaming entertainers add to the fun. All of our usual activities run simultaneously for guests to experience and there is even star gazing late in the evening.

Upon boarding your Tropic Wings coaches guests are given a map and schedule of activities so that they can plan their evening and make sure that they experience all that is on offer.

Once at Rainforestation staff are waiting to greet your excited guests and escort them through the park to the waiting fun.

Themed food stalls are strategically placed around the park. Some of the incredible dishes on offer include BBQ burger bar with tempting Aussie sliders, noodle and curry bars dishing up boxes of delicious Asian cuisine, wood fired pizzas (made to order) all followed up with locally made tropical gelato and sorbets.

Bars serving Australian beer, wine and soft drinks are also placed throughout the park for guests to enjoy.

Later in the evening, guests gravitate to our main restaurant where our party band is on stage. This is when guests really let their hair down and show off their best moves on the dance floor.
